

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	7
Vrej Nersessian’s Awards	10
Vrej Nersessian’s Exhibitions and Collaboration on Exhibitions	11
Vrej Nersessian’s Bibliography	14
Interview with Vrej Nersessian: My Long Journey from Tehran to Calcutta and Via Holy Ejmiadsin to London	26
List of Contributors	47
An Armenian Prayer Scroll in the Collection of the Uppsala University Library, Ewa Balicka-Witakowska, Robert Phenix	48
La Traduction Médiévale Arménienne des Canons du Concile de Chalcédonie (451) Selon le Nomacanon des XIV Titres, Azat Bozoyan	79
The Armenian Translation of the Syriac Life of St Ephrem and its Syriac Source, Sebastian P. Brock	119
Reordering the Catholic Armenian Churches of Rome and Nakhichevan: “Hò Sentito la Messa Sua in Armenia et Qui in Roma Molte Volte.” Nicholas Friton (1560-1597) and Azaria Friton (1602-1604) of Aparan, Christiane Esche-Ramshorn	131
The Notion of the Union of Hypostases as an Idea Taken and Developed by the Armenian Church from the Third Ecumenical Council, Khachik Grigoryan	149
Marchands et clercs-imprimeurs: complémentarité et coopération au XVII ^e siècle de Venise à Amsterdam, Raymond H. Kévorkian	157
La Reine Mélisende, Claude Mutafian	163
An Armenian Manuscript of the Pauline Letters in the Library of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland, Nerses (Vrej) Nersessian	173
Armenian and Foreign Sources on the Spread of Christianity in Armenia During the 1 st -3 rd Centuries, Fr. Ararat Poghosyan	192
Preparing for the Second Coming: the Production and Distribution of the First Hebrew Books Printed in India, Graham Shaw	208
Reflections on the Issue of Bibliographies of American Armenian Book and Armenian Dictionaries, Gevorg Ter-Vardanyan	229
Armenian Traditions Concerning the Writing of the Gospels: When, Where, and in What

Language?, Robert W. Thomson	244
A Brief Survey of Systems of Musical Notation in Armenian Sacred Music, Haig Utidjian	261
Reflections on the History of the Armenian Church and Community in Argentina, Especially in Buenos Aires, Fr. John Whooley	285
The Ethiopic Testament of Antony, Edition and Translation, Witold Witakowski	305